The Old Northwest

A Journal of Regional Life and Letters

THE OLD NORTHWEST is an interdisciplinary journal examining the culture of the old North-West Territory and the states which developed from it (Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, and Wisconsin), as well as other Midwestern states sharing the concerns and conditions of the section. It publishes relevant articles, documents, book reviews, announcements of meetings of professional societies and special conferences and events. The journal appears quarterly in Spring, Summer, Fall and Winter.

Subscriptions are $6.00 per year. In limited numbers copies of back issues are available at $2.00 each. Articles and contributions to the announcements section are welcome. Manuscripts of essays should conform to the recommendations of the Second Edition of the MLA Style Sheet.

Sample copies are available upon request. Checks for subscriptions should be made payable to THE OLD NORTHWEST, and all correspondence should be addressed to: The Editors, THE OLD NORTHWEST, Bachelor Hall, Miami University, Oxford, Ohio 45056.
